Sunday 15th February

A very warm welcome to our service today

If you are visiting with us today, please introduce yourself to the 'welcomers' at the back of the church who will be able to help you with any queries you may have.

If you receive Holy Communion in your own church, you are warmly invited to receive it here. Gluten-Free wafers are available – if you require a gluten-free wafer, please make a 'welcomer' aware before the service who will inform the Clergy Intinction – For hygiene purposes and in line with the guidelines from our Diocesan Bishop, we do not allow intinction (dipping wafer into wine). Receiving the Sacrament in 'bread' alone is sufficient to receive Holy Communion.

If you have any mobility issues the clergy are happy to bring communion to you in your pew – please let a 'welcomer' or churchwarden know. In the same way, if you feel you need to, please feel free to sit down at any point during the service.

ASH WEDNESDAY – 18th FEBRUARY

We will be holding 3 services within the benefice

10.00am Holy Trinity

11.00am St John's

7.00pm Joint Benefice service at St Mary's

2026 LENT COURSE

The Things he carried – A journey to the cross

Tuesdays 7.30pm – 9pm, 17th, 24th February,
3rd, 10th, 17th & 24th March at St Mary's Church, Goldsborough

A course led by Nicky Wynn, based on a book written by Archbishop Stephen Cottrell.
No materials are required, you can simply dip in and out as you are able. For further information please contact Nicky Wynn on wynnnicky2@gmail.com or on 01423 864316

Freedom 4 Girls (F4G) is a Leeds-based charity addressing period poverty in Kenya by providing menstrual health education and reusable pads. In Kenya, 85% of young women rely on unsafe alternatives for menstrual products, impacting their health and education. This leads to missed school, reduced productivity, and limited opportunities. Period poverty restricts education and financial independence, widening gender disparities. F4G empowers young women by hiring local mothers to make reusable period packs, with 20,000 distributed so far. Packs are delivered to schools and community groups by trained educators, who teach menstrual hygiene and fight stigma. If you'd like to help, please consider donating full-sized patterned or coloured briefs (size 10 or 12, no white). Pam Thomas at St John's will collect and deliver them to F4G, helping improve girls' lives in Kenya.

God speaks to each of us individually. We need to listen so we can hear what He is saying. TODAYS BIBLE READINGS

Exodus 24. 12-end - The Lord said to Moses, "Come up to me on the mountain and stay here, and I will give you the tablets of stone with the law and commandments I have written for their instruction." Then Moses set out with Joshua his aide, and Moses went up on the mountain of God. He said to the elders, "Wait here for us until we come back to you. Aaron and Hur are with you, and anyone involved in a dispute can go to them." When Moses went up on the mountain, the cloud covered it, and the glory of the Lord settled on Mount Sinai. For six days the cloud covered the mountain, and on the seventh day the Lord called to Moses from within the cloud. To the Israelites the glory of the Lord looked like a consuming fire on top of the mountain. Then Moses entered the cloud as he went on up the mountain. And he stayed on the mountain forty days and forty nights.

2 Peter 1. 16-end - For we did not follow cleverly devised stories when we told you about the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ in power, but we were eyewitnesses of his majesty. He received honour and glory from God the Father when the voice came to him from the Majestic Glory, saying, "This is my Son, whom I love; with him I am well pleased." We ourselves heard this voice that came from heaven when we were with him on the sacred mountain. We also have the prophetic message as something completely reliable, and you will do well to pay attention to it, as to a light shining in a dark place, until the day dawns and the morning star rises in your hearts. Above all, you must understand that no prophecy of Scripture came about by the prophet's own interpretation of things. For prophecy never had its origin in the human will, but prophets, though human, spoke from God as they were carried along by the Holy Spirit.

Matthew 17. 1-9 - After six days Jesus took with him Peter, James and John the brother of James, and led them up a high mountain by themselves. There he was transfigured before them. His face shone like the sun, and his clothes became as white as the light. Just then there appeared before them Moses and Elijah, talking with Jesus. Peter said to Jesus, "Lord, it is good for us to be here. If you wish, I will put up three shelters—one for you, one for Moses and one for Elijah." While he was still speaking, a bright cloud covered them, and a voice from the cloud said, "This is my Son, whom I love; with him I am well pleased. Listen to him!" When the disciples heard this, they fell facedown to the ground, terrified. But Jesus came and touched them. "Get up," he said. "Don't be afraid." When they looked up, they saw no one except Jesus. As they were coming down the mountain, Jesus instructed them, "Don't tell anyone what you have seen, until the Son of Man has been raised from the dead."

COLLECT

Almighty Father, whose Son was revealed in majesty
before he suffered death upon the cross:
give us grace to perceive his glory,
that we may be strengthened to suffer with him
and be changed into his likeness, from glory to glory;
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

POST COMMUNION

Holy God,
we see your glory in the face of Jesus Christ:
may we who are partakers at his table
reflect his life in word and deed, that all the world may know his power to change and save.
This we ask through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
