KNARESBOROUGH ANGLICAN TEAM MINISTRY

Safe Church
Making our Church Safe for All

Sunday 15th November- Safeguarding Sunday

A warm welcome to our service today

If you are visiting with us today, please introduce yourself to the 'welcomers' at the back of the church who will be able to help you with any queries you may have.

If you receive Holy Communion in your own church, you are warmly invited to receive it here. Gluten-Free wafers are available – if you require a gluten-free wafer, please make a 'welcomer' aware before the service who will inform the Clergy.

Intinction – For hygiene purposes and in line with the guidelines from our Diocesan Bishop, we do not allow intinction (dipping wafer into wine). Receiving the Sacrament in 'bread' alone is sufficient to receive Holy Communion.

If you have any mobility issues the clergy are happy to bring communion to you in your pew – please let a 'welcomer' or churchwarden know. In the same way, if you feel you need to, please feel free to sit down at any point during the service.

Help make our Christmas Tree Festival sparkle!

Our Christmas Tree Festival runs from 5–20 December, and there's still time to volunteer. Please get in touch with June Graham at junegraham1961@gmail.com to get involved.

If serving refreshments or baking delicious treats is more your cup of tea, we'd love your help in the HUB at weekends. Please add your name to the sign-up sheet at the back of St John's church.

Art in the HUB is holding an exhibition on Saturday 21st November, 10.30am–4pm, and Sunday 22nd November, 12pm–2pm. Paintings will be available to buy, with all proceeds helping New Life Ghana Charity recipients develop sustainable small businesses.

We hope you'll come along to enjoy the group's evolving, inspiring work and help raise funds for the charity. Thank you.

SAFEGUARDING DEFINITIONS

Thirtyone:eight use two different definitions for safeguarding. One for children and another for adults.

SAFEGUARDING CHILDREN:

Safeguarding children is defined in Working Together to Safeguard Children as: protecting children from maltreatment, preventing impairment of children's health or development, ensuring that children are growing up in circumstances consistent with the provision of safe and effective care, taking action to enable all children to have the best outcomes

SAFEGUARDING ADULTS:

The Care Act statutory guidance defines adult safeguarding as:

Protecting an adult's right to live in safety, free from abuse and neglect. It is about people and organisations working together to prevent and stop both the risks and experience of abuse or neglect, while at the same time making sure that the adult's wellbeing is promoted including, where appropriate, having regard to their views, wishes, feelings and beliefs in deciding on any action. This must recognise that adults sometimes have complex interpersonal relationships and may be ambivalent, unclear or unrealistic about their personal circumstances. Must act when it has 'reasonable cause to suspect that an adult: Has needs for care and support (whether or not the local council is meeting any of those needs), Is experiencing, or is at risk of, abuse or neglect, and as a result of those needs is unable to protect himself or herself against the abuse or neglect or the risk of it.'

Alternative Liturgy:

Gathering Prayer:

We come to the God who saves us and makes us safe in Him. Let us commit ourselves to the welfare of those in our care. We look towards the needs of the vulnerable and consider our responses and actions for their health and salvation. Amen.

Assurance of forgiveness:

The Lord Almighty hears our prayers knows our innermost thoughts, desires and pains. The Lord our God hears our confession and assures us that our sins are washed away, our lives cleansed and restored, our burdens lifted.

Let us hear then word of God….my child, your sins are forgiven, go in love, go in peace. Amen.

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia, Alleluia,
God is love. He is our refuge and strength.
Therefore, let us love in words and deed. Alleluia.

Introduction to the peace:

It is God's will that all of his creation should live in harmony. Make our community here a place of safety and peace for all who enter our doors.

The peace and security of God be always with you:
And also with you.

Dismissal:

And now my God the Father protect and keep us,
May Jesus, that great shepherd of the sheep, lead us and teach us,
And may the Holy Spirit fill us and inspire us to do Gods will.

And the blessing of God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit be with us all, and those whom we serve. Amen.

TODAYS BIBLE READINGS

Psalm 91 - Whoever dwells in the shelter of the Most High will rest in the shadow of the Almighty. I will say of the Lord, "He is my refuge and my fortress, my God, in whom I trust." Surely, he will save you from the fowler's snare and from the deadly pestilence. He will cover you with his feathers, and under his wings you will find refuge; his faithfulness will be your shield and rampart. You will not fear the terror of night, nor the arrow that flies by day, nor the pestilence that stalks in the darkness, nor the plague that destroys at midday. A thousand may fall at your side, ten thousand at your right hand, but it will not come near you. You will only observe with your eyes and see the punishment of the wicked. If you say, "The Lord is my refuge," and you make the Most High your dwelling, no harm will overtake you, no disaster will come near your tent. For he will command his angels concerning you to guard you in all your ways; they will lift you up in their hands, so that you will not strike your foot against a stone. You will tread on the lion and the cobra; you will trample the great lion and the serpent. "Because he loves me," says the Lord, "I will rescue him; I will protect him, for he acknowledges my name. He will call on me, and I will answer him; I will be with him in trouble, I will deliver him and honour him. With long life I will satisfy him and show him my salvation."

1 John 3:16-24 - This is how we know what love is: Jesus Christ laid down his life for us. And we ought to lay down our lives for our brothers and sisters. If anyone has material possessions and sees a brother or sister in need but has no pity on them, how can the love of God be in that person? Dear children, let us not love with words or speech but with actions and in truth. This is how we know that we belong to the truth and how we set our hearts at rest in his presence: If our hearts condemn us, we know that God is greater than our hearts, and he knows everything. Dear friends, if our hearts do not condemn us, we have confidence before God and receive from him anything we ask, because we keep his commands and do what pleases him. And this is his command: to believe in the name of his Son, Jesus Christ, and to love one another as he commanded us. The one who keeps God's commands lives in him, and he in them. And this is how we know that he lives in us: We know it by the Spirit, he gave us.

Luke 9:1-4, 6 - When Jesus had called the Twelve together, he gave them power and authority to drive out all demons and to cure diseases, and he sent them out to proclaim the kingdom of God and to heal the sick. He told them: "Take nothing for the journey—no staff, no bag, no bread, no money, no extra shirt. Whatever house you enter, stay there until you leave that town. So they set out and went from village to village, proclaiming the good news and healing people everywhere.

THE COLLECT	POST COMMUNION PRAYER
God of compassion and justice, give us courage to listen, wisdom to protect, and humility to face our failings; that your Church may be a place of safety and healing; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen	God of peace, we thank you that by sharing bread and wine, we are more aware of your love for us and for all humanity, Guide us when encountering those in distress, loving as you love, and being prompted to actin. May we share in keeping your precious one's safe and cared for. Amen.
